WELCOME TO

Tomales

Established in 1877, the William Tell House is the oldest saloon in Marin County.

The Tell has remained a cherished community gathering place for generations and home to countless dinners, weddings, and celebrations.

We now invite you to make your own memories here with us and your closest family & friends in our fine town of Tomales.

NOW, LET'S CELEBRATE!

WEDDINGS

We can create the perfect celebration for you on your big day. Scenic wedding vistas nearby for your ceremony, then the William Tell House for the perfect reception dinner. Add on a block of rooms at our inn to keep the good times rolling!

REHEARSAL DINNERS

Already have your wedding venue booked? We would still love to have you join us for your rehearsal dinner. We'll handle all the details so you can relax the night before your big day!

CORPORATE RETREATS

Get your team together and let us plan the perfect team building outing - take a goat farm tour in the morning, kayak on the Tomales Bay in the afternoon and then come back to a relaxing dinner at the Tell

BIRTHDAYS / ANNIVERSARIES

Celebrate life's milestones with a celebration including a custom menu, themed decor and many rounds of drinks!

Our indoor dining room accommodates up to 40 guests while our outdoor patio accommodates up to 120 with our rustic picnic tables

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION

Let your guests enjoy the countryside experience by booking rooms at the William Tell House Inn, which can accommodate up to 15 guests with our four available rooms.

Additional lodging at the Continental Inn and Dillon Beach Resort allow up to 120 of your guests to stay within just 7 miles of the William Tell House.

And best of all, there are endless adventures for your guests to enjoy when they stay nearby, including Pt. Reyes National Seashore, Dillon Beach, wine country tastings, hiking, fishing and kayaking on Tomales Bay.

We know they'll all love it here as much as we do.

Let's start planning your celebration, at the Tell!

It's as simple as that - send us over an email and tell us a bit about your celebration, then we will start crafting your perfect party!
